

Do I Need a Will?

Have you ever wondered if you need a Will? The answer is that absolutely everyone needs a Will, even if all you have is debt. Seeing a lawyer can seem like a complicated, depressing or daunting task to be postponed indefinitely, but in reality it's a simple process that's cheaper than you think. Having a lawyer prepare your Will is one of the most important things you can do to care for your loved ones to ensure they inherit the maximum amount. Without a Will, the law decides where your stuff goes, in what amount, and the tax and administrative costs are significantly higher. The result is that your loved ones inherit less. Wouldn't you like to have control over what happens to your stuff after death? Don't be unprepared! Give us a call and see just how simple, affordable and doable it really is.
